Attendance

Class Attendance will be taken at each meeting time. Students are also expected to participate in class actively.

Each student is allowed two “free” missed classes without penalty to the final attendance point total. However, “free” absences do not automatically excuse the student from assignment due dates. For excused absences, make-ups, and additional clarification of UF's attendance policy, please see: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>

Please note that for religious absences, UF requires students to notify the Professor before the absence.

Late Policy

Unless you have a documented reason for why you cannot complete an assignment by the due date (and except for factors listed in the UF attendance policy link above), late submissions on homework, exams, and quizzes will not be accepted. Extra credit projects will not be assigned instead of late submissions.

UF Policies

University Policy on Accommodating Students with Disabilities

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

University Policy on Academic Misconduct

Academic honesty and integrity are fundamental values of the University community. Students should read the UF Student Honor Code at <https://sccr.dso.ufl.edu/policies/student-honor-code-student-conduct-code/>.

Netiquette: Communication Courtesy

All class members are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all email messages, threaded discussions, and chats. See the course netiquette guidelines on Canvas.

Class Expectations and Make-Up Policy

- Students should attend all classes. Excused absences must be consistent with university policies in the Graduate Catalog and require appropriate documentation. Additional information can be found in Attendance Policies.
- Students should actively participate in class discussions. I understand that some of you may feel more comfortable than others speaking in front of your peers and /or voicing your opinions. Providing your opinion will be very important in your future as a professional, whether orally or in written format.
- Be respectful of diverse opinions during class discussions or group activities. All opinions count.
- Students are responsible for all material covered in class.
- Students should complete readings BEFORE the class in which they are discussed.
- Students are responsible for checking Canvas frequently for the latest class information and updates.

Assignments

To fully comprehend advertising strategy, students will have the opportunity to apply the skills learned in the course. The quality of one's experience in this course can be attributed, in part, to the level of involvement in the learning process. Therefore, students are expected (and encouraged) to be part of the learning process through regular and consistent participation.

Written assignments will be submitted through Canvas and should adhere to the specifications detailed in each project summary. All assignments must be submitted by the designated due date to avoid point forfeiture.

Quizzes

Quizzes are intended to be short-form, low-stakes assessments that gauge students' knowledge and understanding of the course readings and lectures. Quizzes will be administered in class through CANVAS. Students must take the quiz within the designated class time to avoid forfeiting the quiz opportunity. Students are allowed only one attempt per Canvas quiz. Each quiz is timed and will automatically close at the end of the allotted minutes.

Group Project

You will work in teams of 3-4 students throughout the semester to develop a creative brief for a brand. The instructor will assign the groups. This project will consist of four deliverables due at different points during the semester: (1) a situation analysis + SWOT, (2) consumer and brand research, (3) big idea definition and rationale, IMC strategies, and evaluation, and (4) the creative brief itself and a final presentation. All deliverables are to be submitted via Canvas. Additional details about these projects will be given as the semester progresses. Each team member will receive a calculated score from the combination of individual and group scores. A grading rubric will be provided to clarify the instructor's expectations for the final deliverable and specific milestones throughout the development of the group project.

Grading & Make-Up Policy:

We will follow UF Attendance Policies regarding attending class, assigned work, quizzes, and exams. It will not be accepted unless you notify me in advance and have a documented reason for why you cannot complete a given component of this class promptly.

For some documented exceptions, and at the instructor's discretion, homework not submitted by the posted due date and time will incur a 10% grade reduction for each 24- hour period that it is late up to five days. After five days, no late homework will be accepted.

Missing a quiz, activity, or exam without permission results in zero points for such activity or quiz. Under circumstances where the student misses a quiz, activity, or exam due to unanticipated reasons, students will have two business days (i.e., 48 weekday hours) to inform the instructor and to negotiate a make-up opportunity. In either case, valid, verifiable documentation supporting the absence is required (doctor's note, accident report, etc.).

Excused absences must be consistent with university policies in the Graduate Catalog and require appropriate documentation. Additional information can be found in Attendance Policies.

On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Software Use

All faculty, staff, and students of the University are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against University policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate. We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to uphold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.

Class Recording

Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal, educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.

A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving student participation solely, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third-party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.”
