Spring 2025      Wednesdays 1:55PM – 4:55PM
Weimer 1078

Professor:              Rita Men, Ph.D., APR
Professor & Director of Internal Communication Research
Office: Weimer 3054
Phone: 352-294-2897
E-mail: rmen@ufl.edu

Office Hours:          11:30am-1:30pm and by appointment (Feel free to stop by anytime when my office door is open! ☺)

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

PUR 4800 is the capstone course for the undergraduate program in public relations. As such, it draws heavily on students' previous training in principles, techniques, writing, and research methods to develop and partially implement a public relations campaign for an actual organizational client. Students will use the principles and techniques of public relations to analyze case studies, track current public relations issues, create various communication campaigns, and solve real-world problems. The additional advanced learning will come not so much from the instructor or the materials but in the application—the creation of comprehensive communications campaigns that truly communicate.

COURSE FORMAT:

Class time will be dedicated to lectures/discussions and/or time reserved for team meetings and work sessions. Students should prepare to dedicate ample time outside of classroom hours to complete their campaign projects. For the campaign-planning portion, this course will employ the counseling-firm format in which class members form account teams, representing the same organization client. The requirements and expectations of the Team Project will be as rigorous and demanding as students' first job in public relations.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

By the end of this course, you should be able to:

- Discuss the basic principles of public relations campaign management, including applied research, planning, communication, evaluation, and stakeholder relationship management
- Develop a standard of excellence by analyzing “real life,” award-winning campaigns
- Apply strategic, creative thinking in the development of a public relations campaign and collateral materials
- Determine, analyze, and develop communication programs to solve real-world problems

- Consult and advise an actual client on strategic public relations campaign development

EXPECTED READING:

Students are expected to read news periodicals (local, national, and international) and communication-related professional and academic journals regularly. Higher levels of professional competence and authority demand not only awareness of current news events but also an applied understanding of how economic, political, and social trends affect the communication profession. Suggested resources include, but are not limited to, the Journal of Public Relations Research, Public Relations Review, Public Relations Journal (<http://www.prsa.org/prjournal/>), and PRism (<http://www.prismjournal.org>). Other helpful practitioner-based resources include The Institute for Public Relations (www.instituteforpr.com), PRSA (www.prsa.org), PRWeek (<https://www.prweek.com/us>), and PR News (<https://www.prnewsonline.com/about>).

ABSENCES AND PUNCTUALITY:

Attendance is required for each scheduled class meeting. Each student is allowed one unexcused absence for the semester. Your final grade may be lowered by one letter grade (e.g., B- to C-) for each unexcused absence beyond two. An excused absence is one supported by documentation (e.g., from UF or a doctor's office) or specially approved by the professor prior to the absence. Regardless of the reason for your absence, you are responsible for all class work missed, and a missed class is not an excuse for missing a deadline. Late arrivals and/or early departures from class, without prior approval from the professor, will be counted as unexcused absences.

OTHER CLASS POLICIES:

- Students with Special Needs: Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.
- Course Evaluations: Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at <https://gatorevals.ua.ufl.edu/students/> (Links to an external site.). Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/> (Links to an external site.). Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.ua.ufl.edu/public-results/> (Links to an external site.).
- Academic Honesty: The University of Florida Honor Code applies to all activities associated with this class.
  - ✓ UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code.
  - ✓ On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Honor Code (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions.

✓ You can review UF's academic honesty guidelines in detail at:
<https://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/seminars-modules/academic-integrity-module>

- Religious Observance: Religiously observant students wishing to be absent on holidays that require missing class should notify their professors in writing at the beginning of the semester, and should discuss with them, in advance, acceptable ways of making up any work missed because of the absence.
- Requirements for make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>
- AI Policy for Student Work: AI is commonly used in the profession, so familiarity with generative AI tools is important. However, do not let your creative thinking and editing skills lapse! When AI is used in assignments, you will need to document how AI was used. This could include providing your original prompts, showing the editing that you did to the created content, or using appropriate citation of information obtained via generative AI. It is considered a violation of the honor code if you are presenting content as your own that was not fully created by you. There are various AI detection tools available (built within Canvas and externally), and many AI platforms follow very formulaic response patterns.

- For case presentations, each team of four students will select and sign up for one (1) year of case studies from the PRSA Silver Anvil website (available at <http://www.prsa.org/Awards/SilverAnvil/Search>). Feel free to use my PRSA account for access. Each team will be required to read through all the cases of the year and select the best one for analysis and present to the class. Alternatively, you may find a casebook of public relations campaign (approved by the professor). Read through all the cases of the book and select the best one for analysis and presentation. Detailed guidelines for case presentations can be found on page 10.

GUIDELINES FOR CASE PRESENTATION:

A typical case study presentation lasts approximately 15 minutes. Be prepared to defend your presentation as the instructor and the class may ask questions throughout the session.

Using PowerPoint, create slides with appropriate information for each of the following slides. Be sure to provide answers to ALL of the questions listed here as you'll lose points for every question you fail to answer. You may use more than one slide per section.

- Title slide:
  - a. List who conducted the program and when. If an agency conducted the program, list the agency and the client.
  - b. Also include your name/date/course information on this slide.
- Background/Situational Analysis:
  - a. Describe the situation that called for the campaign, including any important background information (i.e., situational analysis).
  - b. What's the issue/problem?
- Research:
  - a. Describe any research that campaigners conducted to gain insight into the problem/opportunity/audience. Which methods did planners use? How were the findings used to inform campaign planning?
  - b. Describe whether they conducted primary or secondary research, and whether it was qualitative or quantitative.
- Target public(s):
  - a. Outline the target audiences/publics for the campaign. Who were the primary publics? Any secondary publics?
  - b. How were the publics segmented (e.g., demographically, psychographically, geographically, by reputation, by position, etc.)?
  - c. Who else, in your opinion, should have been considered as a target?
- Goals/objectives:
  - a. Identify each goal as either awareness, attitudinal, or behavioral.
  - b. Outline the objectives for the campaign and tell whether these were output or outcome (impact) objectives.

- c. Were the objectives measurable? In other words, did planners quantify each objective (e.g., increase awareness by 40%...)? How could the objectives be re-written to make them more effective?
- Key messages:
  - a. List the major messages campaigners wished to communicate in the campaign?
  - b. What did planners want the target public(s) to know, remember, think about, or do?
  - c. Did they develop a campaign theme/slogan to make the messages more memorable?
  - d. If there was no clear theme, what would you suggest?
- Strategy: Identify the strategy or strategies for the campaign. What are the overall concepts, approaches, or general plans to achieve the goal(s) and objectives?
- Tactics/Channels:
  - a. Describe how the messages were communicated. Be specific.
  - b. Did planners rely on paid/owned/shared/earned media? Be sure to indicate which is which.
  - c. Indicate whether these were communication or action/event-driven tactics.
- Evaluation: Discuss how the campaign was evaluated, what was evaluated, and whether it achieved its stated objectives. What were the results of the campaign?
- Stewardship: Discuss how planners maintained/could have maintained existing relationships with stakeholders throughout the campaign following the principles of stewardship.
- Opinion: On this last slide, explain whether this was a campaign you would have enjoyed planning and executing. Why/why not? Elaborate your key take-aways.

Use your own words. Do NOT “lift” entire sentences and paragraphs from the case study and place them in your presentation. This is plagiarism and you will receive a zero for the assignment.

TEAM CAMPAIGN PROJECT GUIDELINE:

For Spring 2025, class teams will be working with TBD. Students will meet with the client during the fourth week of classes to discuss various public relations issues/challenges and design their research and campaigns accordingly. Likewise, class teams will base their work on an agreed upon brand platform for the client, which will be discussed in further detail in the second week of the semester. Each team will create its own agency name.

Teams will be organized as follows: All students will submit resumes and cover letters seeking two of the five positions of Account Executive (AE), Research Director, Director of Creative Services, Copywriting Director, or Media Director (see attached for job descriptions). Based on the submitted material, the professor, acting as CEO, will select an AE to head each team, and the AEs, in turn, will assign roles to their respective team members based on their interests and strengths, subject to final approval by the CEO. Although addressing related client issues based on the same brand platform, the teams will work independently of each other. However, the research portion of the study - the results of which teams will share – will be conducted jointly.

The teams are normally required to conduct two focus groups. Alternatively, the teams can conduct in-depth interviews with an equivalent number of participants. Subsequently, the joint research project must yield a combined minimum total of 100 usable surveys. Please note: Focus group participants CANNOT be included in the survey portion of the research.

Each team will develop and partially implement a public relations campaign and will submit a written campaign plan book in addition to making an oral presentation to the client. At least three (and preferably more) of the public relations programming techniques recommended in each plan must be produced as a professional-level prototype and provided to the client in electronic format (e.g., finished brochure). In addition, an electronic copy of the team's final PowerPoint presentation must be provided to the client.

As in professional practice, team members will be highly dependent on each other to complete the project successfully. Under no circumstances will a student be allowed to complete a campaign project on his/her own. AEs are expected to be the first line of contact to resolve any team problems. Should additional assistance be required, the CEO should be consulted in a timely manner. Unresolved team problems are not an excuse for diminished quality work product or failure to meet the requirements of this course.

As CEO, the professor will conduct multiple in-depth meetings with each team during the semester, at which time members will formally report on their progress in completing the five steps of the public relations process of ROPES: research, objectives, programming, evaluation, and stewardship (see attached for required progress report format) and rehearse their client presentation with the CEO who will provide advice and criticism for each team.

Campaign Plan Book Format Requirements:

The electronic copy of the campaign plan book is required for successful completion of the Team Project and is due at the same time as the team's client presentation. Keep in mind that the campaign plan book is a standalone document; that is, it must be self-explanatory and comprehensive. Furthermore, its design and layout should be reflective of professional, not amateur, quality. That is, the campaign book should not look like “student” work.

Be cautious of using acronyms, such as ROPES, without first clearly defining them, and avoid use of public relations jargon potentially unfamiliar to the client (e.g., publics) without an accompanying explanation. Everything covered in the client presentation must be included in the campaign book, and the campaign book is expected to include details, such as budgets, that are not thoroughly reviewed in the client presentation.

The campaign plan book is to be divided into sections for Brand Platform, Executive Summary, Research, Objectives, Programming, Evaluation, and Stewardship. The overall look and feel, layout, and format of the campaign plan book are at the team's discretion, but books must include, at a minimum, the elements described below.

Brand Platform

This section includes a copy of the completed brand platform, including Vision, Values, and Purpose Statement. It should be accompanied by a one-page summary explaining each of the three parts of the platform.

Executive Summary

This section is a one- to two-page, high-level summary of the issues/challenges addressed and a brief description of work done and conclusions reached/recommendations made in each of the ROPES steps. Someone should be able to read only this section and have a working understanding of the overall scope of the team's campaign. This section is different for each team in that it focuses on the team's unique contribution to the overall project.

Research

This section includes a description of and rationale for the methodologies employed, subsequent findings, and conclusions drawn from the teams' research. The format should be in keeping with an academic research report (i.e., include in-text references and a References page), written for an audience who has no knowledge of social science research methods, and include blank copies of any research instruments used. One research section will be jointly written, and each team that works for the same client will include the same research section in the campaign books. Note: Originals of the completed research instruments, any records of research findings, and SPSS files must be provided to the CEO before the client presentation.

Objectives

This section describes the team's goal(s) and objectives for the campaign and how each relates to the research findings. Target audiences should also be specified. The objectives section differs for each team.

Programming

This section includes recommendations (strategies and tactics in specific, actionable terms), key messages, budget (delineated costs of implementing each recommendation, including source, date, and contact info for estimates provided), timeline, and prototypes created by the team for the client's use. That said, the programming section differs for each team. Electronic files of prototypes and the final PowerPoint presentation must be included in the campaign book to aid the client in future replication, editing, etc.

Evaluation

This section explains how the client can evaluate the effectiveness/success of objectives presented in the campaign plan – both during (process evaluation) and after (outcome evaluation) campaign implementation. Evaluation methods will be discussed in class.

Stewardship

This section explains how the client can steward the relationships established during the campaign process. Stewardship principles will be discussed in class.

Job Descriptions for Team Project:

Account Executive (AE):

Team leader. Has overall and ultimate responsibility for successful coordination, completion, presentation, and delivery of the team's campaign plan. Additional responsibilities include management of team's work schedule, deadlines, budget, and proper alignment of campaign plan with agreed upon brand platform. Primary point of contact for CEO and client. Reports to CEO.

Copywriting Director:

Lead responsibility for writing copy for all campaign materials, assuring grammatical and spelling accuracy, consistency, clarity, and effectiveness in key messages communicated to target audience(s). Reports to AE.

Director of Creative Services:

Lead responsibility for "look and feel" of all campaign materials, including prototype creation of at least three public relations techniques/programs recommended by team and design of the book. Reports to AE.

Director of Research:

Lead responsibility for strategy, implementation, and compilation of research on client organization and applicable publics. Reports to AE.

Media Director:

Lead responsibility for investigation, cost assessment, and recommendation of appropriate media channels (including social media) through which campaign plan programming can be implemented. Reports to AE.

Client Presentation Format Requirements:

Each team will have 20 minutes to present a summary of their work, recommendations, and prototypes related to their proposed campaign plan. Please note: Prototypes must be presented in a manner that is clearly visible to a large audience – either through PowerPoint or enlarged posters on easels, etc. Teams are advised to repeatedly practice their presentations within the 20-minute time limit, as it will be strictly enforced. Business suits required. See pg. 20 for the presentation score sheet.

- Research directors from each team that works for the same client jointly present their methodologies and findings.
- Each remaining member takes part in the team presentation. Allocation of topics is to be decided by the team, but objectives, programming (with prototypes), evaluation, and stewardship must be included. Use of PowerPoint or similar presentation software is required.
- AE closes, invites any additional questions.
- Questions should be answered by the team member with primary responsibility for the area of inquiry. Given time constraints, some items may need to be tabled for follow-up discussion, and the AE is responsible for recording these items and ensuring follow-up is completed.

- Please note: Dr. Men reserves the right to give an AE a grade of “I” (Incomplete) if the client is not provided with all the campaign book elements described herein or if the AE fails to follow through on a commitment made to the client at the final presentation in a timely manner. Only when client commitments have been met will the grade of “I” be converted to an actual grade that reflects the AE’s overall performance in the class.

AGENCY ETIQUETTE:

The following tips for successful group work have been practiced by many students before you.

- ✓ Flexibility in scheduling is a must. “Everyone is juggling two jobs and lots of classes. You’re going to have to make time.”
- ✓ Be on time for meetings. “No one wants to sit around waiting for someone to arrive. Call immediately if you’re going to be late due to an emergency.”
- ✓ Have weekly goals and meet them. “Complete your assignments ASAP, not just before the next meeting.”
- ✓ Schedule enough time personally to complete assignments. “Time goes by quicker than you think, so stay on top of deadlines. Don’t come to a meeting and say I didn’t have enough time to get it done. That just holds us all up.”
- ✓ Come to meetings prepared. “It’s amazing how some students will come unprepared to meetings with photocopied material from the library. Who cares? Tell us what it means.”
- ✓ Take every step seriously. “There’s lots of work to be done. Often it’s done in so many steps. Research. Analyze. Research again. Write. Edit. Write it again.”
- ✓ Be patient. “Everyone is just as tired as you are.”
- ✓ Focus on research in the beginning. “Determine problems and opportunities based on the research, and then plan the campaign accordingly so that you can measure in the end.”
- ✓ Be accountable to each other. “Understand how hard it is for everyone and be there for each other. There is no excuse for not getting assignments done.”
